

Photo 16. Location 5-a, Birch Avenue at corner with Hemlock Road. Erratic boulder dug from marine clay (unit 5) beneath Birch Avenue, October 2003. Boulder is composed of layered crystalline gneiss, a rock metamorphosed (changed) under conditions of high temperature and pressure. Similar rock is associated with granites in the Gatineau Hills.