Absent: Patrick O’Keefe, Ed Doe, Peter Macdougall, Loie Macdougall, Robert Bennett, Mary Hickman, Marie-France Senecal, Jeffery Thiessen, Charles D’Amour, Ellis Westwood.

There was a change to item 6 in the minutes of Feb. 8, 2005. The minutes have been amended to state that the Karen Way Development has been put on hold till further notice.

Treasurer’s Report: There is a balanced budget.

Item 1 – The Dinner Dance: Mary Hickman has stepped down as chairperson of the dinner dance. Carrie Willis and Maryann Vanderjack will be taking over the organization of the dinner dance. A thank you letter will be sent to the Aviation Museum Director General Anthony Smyth.

Item 2 – The Chronicle: There is a need to redistribute the heavy workload that is currently being done by Editor Sharleen Tattersfield. There is a set-up committee made up of Allison Simpkins, Melanie Rebane, and Robert Valiquette. This committee will help Sharleen to brainstorm on helping with the advertising and the set-up.

Item 3 – Public Information Night and AGM: The public information night and AGM will be held on June 7, 2005. The committee working on gathering the information is made of David Goldfield, Patrick O’Keefe, Jeffery Thiessen, Gail Somers, and John Forsey.

Item 4 – Councillor Jacques Legendre’s Report: Councillor Legendre attended the public meeting that was put on by the R.C.M.P. on March 7, 2005. There was a discussion about changes to the Canadian Police Collage and the Musical Ride, and about a pathway to connect the R.C.M.P. and the Aviation Museum and changes to the roadways. The changes will not take place immediately but in the long-term future.

Item 5 – The Garage Sale: Mary Hickman will be taking over the garage sale.

Item 6 – The Manor Park Web Site: There is a bottleneck on the Manor Park web site due to the students at Rideau High School. A technician has been sent in to help meet the deadline. Robert Valiquette will help Allison find someone to help with the web site content and advertising.

The next meeting will take place on April 12, 2005.
