Item 1 – Karen Way: John Mark Keyes gave us a review of what has been happening with RichCraft, bringing us up to the present day. RichCraft wishes to reactivate their application for a zoning amendment. RichCraft wishes to go before City Council by Jan. 24, 2006. The Karen Way Committee is asking for a delay to prepare its response on the issue.

Item 2 – Dinner Dance: The plans for the dinner dance are proceeding well under the direction of Marianne van der Jagt. This year there will be more space at the Aviation Museum and the catering will be done by Goodies. The Master of Ceremonies will be Ian Robertson.

Item 3 – Community Files: Robert Bennett has worked on 5 boxes of files for the community, sorting through them and cataloguing them. A motion was made to allow Robert to dispose of the duplicate and excess records and to find a place for the remaining records. This motion was made by Mary Hickman and seconded by Sharleen Tattersfield. The motion was carried.

Item 4 – Rockcliffe Airbase: The community association requests that the development committee come up with a detailed action plan for the Rockcliffe Airbase.
